

Data Strategy & Security

Introduction

Data is one of companies' most valuable assets and greatest risks.

The global flow of information creates constantly changing challenges: How do companies acquire, store, protect, use, and share data to keep up with the competition while reducing their legal and reputational risks?

Companies need an experienced and creative partner to work closely with them to formulate and achieve their overall data strategy, whether they are:

- Preparing for a ransomware attack or other significant cyber, privacy, or AI event;
- Evaluating the data-related risks and benefits of an acquisition;
- Facing scrutiny over their cybersecurity or privacy policies and practices;
- Responding to investigations or litigation relating to a data breach; or
- Developing an artificial intelligence or big data program.

“I view them as some of the best in the industry; they are knowledgeable, thought leaders in this space with tremendous amounts of experience. They are leading issues impacting the cyber industry.”

“The team has a very strong understanding of regulatory impact and the bench is second to none.”

Chambers USA, 2025

Ranked as a leading firm for Cyber Law (including Data Privacy & Data Protection).

“The expertise of the lawyers at Debevoise is unmatched. They have some of the most experienced lawyers in the trade.”

“The team’s breadth of knowledge stands out; I would consider them not just practitioners, but experts in the field.”

The Legal 500 US, 2025

Named a winner in the “Innovation in Digitizing Legal Services” category by the Financial Times’ 2022 North America Innovative Lawyers Awards.

Data Strategy & Security Services

The Debevoise Data Strategy & Security (DSS) practice is global and interdisciplinary—combining our cybersecurity, privacy, artificial intelligence, business continuity, M&A diligence, and data governance practices into one fully integrated and coordinated group.

Our calling card has been our ability to skillfully resolve the most complex, high-stakes, technical cyber incidents, including working in the classified space and with law enforcement, where sophisticated clients routinely tell us that our connections and experience are unmatched.

Our cyber incidents work is just one part of our matrix. We leverage our leadership's experience as DOJ and SEC attorneys to lead internal and whistleblower investigations related to cybersecurity regulatory compliance, conduct cybersecurity risk assessments, make board presentations, and litigate data breach and business-email compromise cases. Additionally, as cyber and AI rapidly converge, Debevoise stands out as one of the only firms where leading cybersecurity and AI practices are fully integrated (our DSS practice co-leaders are ranked by Chambers USA as Band 1 for Privacy & Data Security and Band 1 for AI, respectively).

Combined with our robust privacy and national security capabilities, we are perfectly positioned to deliver nuanced, practical advice to clients on the novel and cutting-edge data and information security issues presented by emerging AI use cases and multinational business operations. This includes advising clients on the use of sensitive or commercially valuable IP with AI systems, sharing such data with third-party AI service providers, and compliance with the DOJ's bulk data transfer rule. Complementing our advisory work in the cyber, privacy and AI space is a team of practitioners well versed in cyber-adjacent transactional, regulatory and SEC matters. Our growing cyber and privacy litigation practice has made tremendous strides in the past year, adding more complex litigation defense on behalf of our clients. Along with members of our White Collar practice, we are also increasingly advising clients on insider risk issues.

Among the factors that set us apart from other groups:

- We are recognized by Chambers USA for both Cybersecurity and AI, and our practice co-leaders are ranked Band 1 in Cybersecurity and AI, respectively. We are also the only group with a cybersecurity attorney ranked Band 1 in Chambers for Crisis Management, and we are the only group with five attorneys ranked for Cybersecurity.
- We have three partners featured on Cybersecurity Docket's 2025 "Incident Response 50 List."
- Our attorneys have deep technical expertise and include lawyers with engineering degrees and other highly technical experience.
- Our practitioners also have in-house experience, including a former chief in-house counsel for cyber, privacy, and data work at a Fortune 50 company and numerous associates with secondment experience in-house.
- We have multiple former Assistant U.S. Attorneys who led cyber teams and global cyber investigations at the Department of Justice.
- Our partners have been appointed to the New York State Cybersecurity Advisory Board and New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on AI and the Courts.
- We have multiple partners with deep national security experience that enables them to assist clients on sensitive cybersecurity matters that intersect with national security.

“Their industry knowledge and experience make them suited to address complex, sophisticated matters. Regulatory compliance, litigation, emerging issues — they have resources to address all my needs.”

“Debevoise’s team possesses a deep understanding of the complex legal landscape, particularly when it comes to a risk specific to our business. Their insights have been invaluable.”

A FULL RANGE OF DATA GOVERNANCE, PROTECTION, AND PRIVACY SERVICES, INCLUDING CYBER INCIDENT RESPONSE AND MANAGING AI RISK

Our experience and advice covers the full spectrum of cyber threats (including from nation states, criminal ransomware groups, insiders, and critical vendors), as well as compliance with the ever-growing array of cybersecurity, privacy, and AI regulations in the U.S. and across the globe.

- 360° Incident Response Services. Debevoise helps clients navigate cyber incidents with the full range of services, including immediate crisis management, internal and external communications, fact investigation, breach notification, regulator and law enforcement engagement, civil regulatory investigations, defense of class action and derivative litigation, and briefings to the board and C-Suite.
- Engaging with Law Enforcement in the U.S. and Globally. We are able to leverage our worldwide network of law enforcement contacts in the event of an incident. Our team includes several former federal cybercrime prosecutors, including the former leader of the Justice Department’s Criminal Division, the former leader of the Department’s response to national security cyber threats, and two other former Assistant U.S. Attorneys who brought landmark cyber cases in the country’s federal courts.
- Review/Update Data Policies and Governance. We can provide an assessment of the company’s policies and procedures for the protection and handling of consumer and employee personal data, as well as sensitive company information, with particular attention to mitigation of legal, business, and reputational risks.

- Cyber-, Privacy-, and AI-Risk Assessment. In today's dynamic regulatory environment, managing risks at the intersection of law and technology means measuring data protection and data optimization strategies against existing laws and regulations, as well as anticipated changes in the legal and threat environments. We review companies' cybersecurity, privacy, and AI programs and assess them against existing and emerging legal standards. Our work ranges from leading a full legal and technical risk assessment of various data programs, typically performed in tandem with a technical vendor, to a targeted review of areas known to attract regulatory and enforcement focus.
- Board/Executive Briefings and Training. We regularly brief boards and company executives on the latest threats their companies face relating to data in order to help them assess risk, allocate resources, maintain appropriate insurance, prevent avoidable losses, and discharge their oversight obligations. We also provide training on cybersecurity, privacy, and AI risks to new executives and board members, as well as anyone wishing to learn more about their responsibilities in these areas.

- Realistic Tabletop Exercises. We are known for running extremely realistic cyber incident simulations or “tabletops” to help our clients prepare for adverse cybersecurity, privacy and AI events by conducting real-world drills of actual data events for various functions within the organization including Legal, Compliance, IT, Risk, Communications, Executive Management, and the Board. These exercises, which regulators increasingly expect companies to conduct, allow our clients to test their incident response plans and see how their organization works through emergency data events, including ransomware attacks that shut down operations, insider data theft, whistleblower allegations of AI bias, state-sponsored hacking of sensitive commercial information, leaking of large volumes of customer or employee personal information, and compromise of a critical vendor's information systems.

- Vendor Risk Review. Cyber incidents often involve exploitation of a vendor's trusted access to the company's systems, its handling of sensitive data on behalf of the company, or risks posed by the vendor as a single point of operational failure. Accordingly, regulators have honed in on this challenging area. We work with our clients to develop practical, risk-based strategies to manage third-party cyber, privacy, and AI risks through their policy development, diligence efforts, contractual terms, and insurance strategies.
- M&A Due Diligence. Data risks are increasingly prominent in M&A due diligence and in the post-acquisition integration process. We often lead cyber, privacy, and AI diligence investigations around the world, including advising on policies and procedures for due diligence and for integration generally, as well as on risks and issues raised by specific actual or potential acquisitions and investments.
- Insurance. Companies increasingly are concluding that cyber-, AI-, and privacy-specific insurance policies are essential. Our team has significant experience working inside the insurance industry and can review existing policies to assess coverages and exclusions.

REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

Our services are based on experience in the trenches of many of the country's landmark cyber and privacy incidents (including many non-public incidents). Our lawyers have deep technical knowledge that allows them to translate complex technical findings into legal and business decision points. This has enabled us to provide a pragmatic approach to identifying and coordinating the key elements of effective incident response and overall data strategy.

Before joining Debevoise, partner Luke Dembosky served as Deputy Assistant Attorney General for National Security, managing the Justice Department's work on all national security cyber incidents, including the cyber attack on Sony Pictures and the landmark breaches of Target, The Home Depot, Anthem, and the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, among many others.
